

J.M.J

Rensselaer

Oct. 23, 88

Indiana Normal Deanery

Rensselaer, October 23, 1888

Dear Miss Drexel

Madam:

Your very kind favor of the 11th jus at hand, and all the goods you kindly ordered safely arrived.

There were two cupboards, two washstands, seven chairs, two tables, two armchairs, a beautiful bluish chair for chapel. Two beautiful statues of our Lady and St. Joseph each also the columns and oil and lamp which we will always keep burning. There was also a set a dozen coffee cups and the strips for reflectors and latches.

The jackets and shirts you kindly ordered for the sisters were very much appreciated. They were all much surprised and hereby request me to express their sincere thanks for your kind and becoming gift. The sisters will always remember you in their prayers & each one will offer Holy Communion for you.

Last Monday, October 22, our Reverend Mother sent two new sisters who will help cleaning the house. They will do their best to keep things in good shape and hope when you come again everything will be satisfactory.

Wishing you good health and God's riches blessings, I am

Very respectfully Yours,

Sister M. Ida O.S.F.